A Great Revival
I have been waiting for someone to write THE PRESS about the great revival we had here recently, but have failed to see anything so far, so I will try to give you the particulars myself.
Rev. Myrick of Calvert City, Ky., and Rev. Bone, our pastor, closed a series of revival meetings June 15, which had been in progress for 12 days. I am glad to say a great deal of good was done. There was 67 professions, 58 uniting with the M. E. Church, South, 23 of whom were baptized. This was the greatest meeting I ever knew Sedgewickville to have, and it was sorely needed.

The good work has started a prayer meeting which it is hoped will grow and do much good. The converts, young and old, should push onward and work diligently for the crown that awaits them. Fight the good battle of faith, lay hold on eternal life.
We will ever remember Revs. Myrick and Bone for their good work. Dinner on the last Sunday was spread on the ground and it was estimated that 1,500 people were in attendance.
A BELIEVER IN CHRISTIANITY.
From Cullom, Illinois
Health is good in this vicinity, and crops are looking well. The dry weather cut the oats rather short, but the grain is good.

The farmers are busy laying by their corn. The Fourth of July doesn't seem to get in the way of the farmers in this country, they all were running their cultivators. There was an old-fashioned Missouri picnic, but the writer didn't go.
We are having some hot weather at this writing. Some report that the mercury was up to 108, and others say 102, but the writer felt like he was astride the equator.
I have been here this will make four years, and have lost trace of many of my old Bollinger county friends. I would like to have the address of James Gribbey, Albert Bess, A. M. Bess, J. W. Johnson and

J. J. Johnson, or would be glad to see them published in THE PRESS.
With best wishes for THE PRESS and its many readers, we are Two Brothers.

To make sure the youngster was not disobeying the bass-fishing law, the game warden took the boy's string of fish out of the water and found only catfish, perch and suckers on the line. A few feet farther down the stream he found a large black bass wriggling on a string weighted down with a stone and asked the boy what he was doing with the fish. "Well, you see," answered the boy, "he's been taking my bait all morning and so I just tied him up there until I got through fishing."
